

“First Attempt”

November 20, 2022 (Tried a little birthday luck¹)

Yo!

Uh so, I just wanted to mention something a tad embarrassing RIP so please don't laugh. 😊
As you've probably noticed by now, I do a terrible job at expressing my emotions. It's always been that way.

However, I feel that I could tell you this since there is a dimension of trust that has developed in me about you, and that is why I have finally decided to proceed with this message.

See the thing is, these past few weeks have been such a highlight for me because I've found that you're really fun to hang out with. I feel that with you, there's a space to open up regarding deep conversation while still maintaining humor, which is something I really admire. But most importantly, the aspect I really admire is the trust that has been built. From life experience, trust has become the most fundamental quality in a person for me, and that is something I see in you, and I admire a lot. You're incredibly strong, kind and have a peak sense of humor haha!!

I wanted to conclude by saying that I would never want to do anything to affect the friendship we have developed. Therefore if this message comes off as awkward, I really hope that doesn't affect said friendship, cuz I value it 3000.

Really sorry if this is an awkward message! Hope the grammar is okay RIP 😊

Sincerely,

Aalyan 😊

¹ This one might be a bit of a surprise reveal haha! Back on my birthday after the winter ball night, I wrote this message to you as a confession but it seemed to me that my message was too general and so my confession did not come across. After that, I decided to back off because I did not know how to get my feelings across... until 8 days later when I said “No, this is worth it!” 💜💜
